

CHIEF SECRETARIAT.
No. R. 2178—L. R. 731-39-11, dated 23rd September 1941.

In consultation with the Government of India, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja are pleased to withdraw the prohibition of the manufacture of earth salt within five miles of the British territories imposed by para (1) of Notification No. 118, dated 25th July 1881. It will be open to the villagers in the hitherto prohibited area to make and collect salt for domestic use and for sale in their respective villages. The term "domestic use" includes use for manure, cattle or fish-curing by individual fishermen. There should be no manufacture and no removal of salt organised for purposes of regular trade outside the villages. For household consumption in the village or villages immediately adjoining the place of manufacture, salt should be removed by head loads and not by cart or by any means of transport except on foot.

By Order,

B. T. KESAVIENGAR,

Chief Secretary to Government.
